

Reunion 2009 Alumni Achievement Nomination form

Young Alumni Award

This award is new to Lincoln College and has been established to recognize future leaders among Lincoln College's young alumni, defined as those who have been alumna/alumnus for 20 years or less. This individual should demonstrate leadership capabilities, have a substantial indication of a commitment to the service of others, demonstrate the potential for leadership/distinction in the long term, and/or have substantial commitment to Lincoln College and its mission.

Alumni Achievement Award

Considered to be the most prestigious honor bestowed on Lincoln College alumni, the Alumni Achievement Award is presented to a Lincoln College graduate who shows inspiration to others, characterizes the values and ideals of Lincoln College, gives distinguished service through professional or personal achievement and demonstrates continuing interest in Lincoln College. Since 1962 a total of 131 Alumni Achievement Awards have been presented to alumni from all walks of life who have left their mark on the lives of others and their communities.

Honorary Alumni Award

This award is presented to a friend of Lincoln College who has given distinguished service to Lincoln College throughout the years. This individual should demonstrate success in a profession or vocation, provide distinguished service and recognized leadership in work or community, be in receipt of local, state, national or international recognition or be held in high esteem based on moral integrity and decency. Since 1980 a total of 46 Honorary Alumni Awards have been presented.

To help us in our evaluation of the nominees, please provide us with as much of the following information as you can about the individual you have nominated. Remember, the quality of the selection process depends in part upon the amount of information you can provide us.
